Call to Worship: (lyrics to "Cry of My Heart")

It is the cry of our hearts to follow you
It is the cry of our hearts to be close to You
It is the cry of our hearts to follow you
All the days of our lives
Teach us your holy ways, O lord
And make us wholly devoted to You
Open our eyes so we can see you
All the wonderful things that You do
Open our hearts up more and more
And make us wholly devoted to You
Thank you Jesus our King
We Love you
Let us sing praise to Him
Let us sing to our King

Listen to, or sing:

Professing our Faith: John 3:16

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

Heidelberg Catechism Q&A 1:

Q. What is your only comfort in life and in death?

A. That I am not my own, but belong— body and soul, in life and in death—to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ.

He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation.

Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

Questions for further reflection...

1. What other stories can you think of that feature "The Angel of the Lord?"
(Hint: if you have a concordance at the back of your Bible it might help)
2. What does it mean when God calls himself "I am?"
3. Why does it matter to you that God is transcendent?
4. Why does it matter to you that God is immanent?

Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

EPHESIANS 3:20-21
